

CHRISTIAN CONDUCT COVENANT

2010 WELS North Atlantic District Youth Rally

(Include this covenant with your Application)

Covenant for Youth Leaders: In the spirit of Ephesians chapter 5, recognizing that I am to be an “imitator of God,” seeking to model Christ for those I am privileged to supervise and serve at this event, and understanding that my congregation and my group members’ parents have legally entrusted their youth to me (in loco parentis), I promise, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to...

- Personally participate along with my youth group members in all the spiritual growth presentations.
- Cooperate with rally officials and assist in whatever ways asked to help make the rally a success.
- Ensure that my group’s youth are attending the required spiritual growth presentations and breakout discussions and contributing in a positive manner to them.
- Ensure that my group’s youth are accountable and participating positively in all recreational and social activities planned.
- Ensure that my group’s youth are adhering to any and all rules, regulations, and requirements, i.e., wear required name tags, respect rally site property, follow curfews, not use controlled substances, no guys in girl’ rooms and no girls in guys’ rooms, remain on premises unless allowed otherwise, etc.
- Remain onsite and responsible for my group’s youth at all times unless rally schedule or circumstances require otherwise.
- Be physically present and remain in the lodging buildings when my group’s youth are required to be in them for the night.
- Refrain from personal consumption of alcohol.

I further acknowledge that my failure to abide by the above could adversely affect my youth group’s participation in future rallies.
